Bethany Park Camp Information:

Kaiteriteri in Māori means “the place of many waters”. Loved for its turquoise water and golden sand beach, the sunny town of Kaiteriteri is a launching place for trips into the Abel Tasman National Park.

Bethany Park is in beautiful Kaiteriteri boarding the Abel Tasman Park, a 60-minute drive from Nelson airport and 15 minutes from Motueka. It's a Holiday Park and Camp spread over 33 hectares of native bush, hills, streams, inlets and just a ten-minute walk to the golden sands of Kaiteriteri beach.

Bethany Park is an awesome place to base a camp from. There are lots of activities in proximity such as, mountain biking, tramping, kayaking, paddle boarding and swimming, etc. The camp also features a giant waterslide.
